

Art Seminars Scheduled For Torrance Teachers

A series of ten art seminars for Torrance teachers will be conducted during the 1967-68 school year by Dr. James S. Crafts, chairman of the art department at California State College at Long Beach.

Purpose of the series is to prepare teachers for an increased emphasis on art education in the elementary school curriculum, according to Mrs. Mary Long, curriculum consultant.

Forty teachers will serve as faculty representatives at the seminars.

SESSIONS will take place at Crenshaw Elementary School at 3:45 p.m. Sept. 25, Oct. 16, Nov. 6, Dec. 4, Jan. 8, Feb. 5, March 4, March 18, April 15, and April 29.

Dr. Crafts has been chairman of the art department on the Long Beach campus since 1961. Prior to that he served as professor of art and supervisor of student teachers for four years.

A graduate of Oberlin College, he holds advanced degrees in art and education from Teachers College, Columbia University, and received his doctorate from Yale University.

PRIOR TO entering the field of training teachers, he taught school in Powell, Wyo.; Kalamazoo, Mich.; and Hackensack, N.J. He worked with gifted students majoring in art in Newark, N.J., for four years and fulfilled a painting assignment in the South Pacific for the Naval Reserve for four years.

His immediate past experience includes 11 years as chairman of the art department at Teachers College, New Britain, Conn., where he worked mainly with elementary school teachers.

Culminating the art program in Torrance this year will be the school district's first annual art fair, set for the week of Feb. 4.

Tartar Band Will March

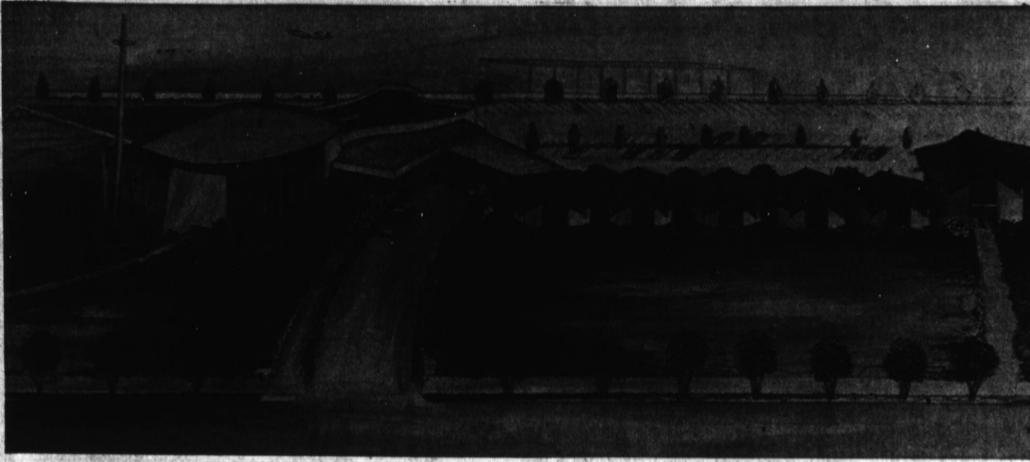

Leading Saturday's parade at the Los Angeles County Fair will be Torrance High School's Tartar Band.

Band members will depart from the high school campus at 9 a.m.

Drum major will be James St. Amour. Baton twirlers will include Jayne Simms, Karen Knoll, and Amy Garrett.

Combined circles will present a Country Fair at the church Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. A talent show will highlight the fair.

home of Mrs. Ella Mae Witenburg, 21303 Archibald Ave. The Sarah and Mary Martha circles already have held their first meetings of tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at the fall.

NEWEST TORRANCE CHURCH . . . Groundbreaking ceremonies will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for the new Civic Center Church of the Nazarene, shown here in the architect's rendering. The church, which will replace a facility at 1501 W. Carson St. is to be located on the northeast corner of Maple Avenue and Maricopa Street. The Rev. R. Wallis Kornegay, pastor of the church, will offer a prayer to dedicate the site. Other participants will include Dr. N. A. Hull, district superintendent of the Southern California District of the Church of the Nazarene, and Mayor Albert Isen. The first unit will include the sanctuary, five Sunday School classrooms and a fellowship hall. The chapel (at far right) will be built later. Completion of the $600,000 facility is expected in the spring of 1968. Harry Harrison is the architect.

Baritone To Guest At Church

Charles Turner, baritone of "First Mate Bob and the Crew of the Good Ship Grace" will be the guest at the Harbor Tabernacle, 1408 W. Anaheim St., Harbor City, at the 10:50 a.m. worship services Sunday.

Turner will deliver the morning message and present a special musical program.

Pastor and Mrs. D. S. Cahill have extended an invitation to all members of the community to participate in the services.

Lutheran Women Plan Fair Sunday

Fall activities of the women of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance currently are Under way.

The Naomi Circle will meet tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Ella Mae Witenburg, 21303 Archibald Ave. The Sarah and Mary Martha circles already have held their first meetings of tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at the fall.
